

1) Это первое письмо мужчины к девушке

Subject:

Hi there,

How are you? I hope after reading my letter you'll be interested in knowing me better. Please allow to introduce myself, my name is Alvaro, as you may have seen in my profile I'm 50, so my first question for you is if my age suits your search criteria, does it?

Honestly, I don't know what to say or how to start this letter, I don't know what would you want to know about me and neither I want to sound too pretentious telling you about how wonderful, serious and successful I am..., I mean, that's how I see people like to talk about themselves; therefore I want to make a deal with you, if we start corresponding, I will be totally open and transparent for you and answer all your questions about me and my life; I'll show myself just as I am, and I'll not try to pretend something I'm not to impress you and make you like me, I'll be just be myself, so if we get along and we agree to a personal meeting, you will find the very same man you have seen in pictures and read in mails here, deal?

For you to know something about me, I am mature, responsible and hard-working. I made myself an interesting career having studied and worked hard throughout all my life; I have a good sense of humour, I can say I'm smart and with a positive attitude to life; I try to be honest and sincere in all I do in my life. I am divorced and I had no kids. I don't have bad habits, I like to enjoy a simple life, I avoid conflictive people because I dislike drama queens, falseness, lies and quarrels.

I did all my work and effort in life to build myself a solid economic and social position, now it's time to enjoy life as time now has a more precious value to me. I know what I want and look for, and I'm not here to waste my time with pen pals or fake words and empty promises, I'm a man of my word and I think actions speak louder than words, in that spirit, I believe that everything as a right time to happen, but we must not just wait for things to happen, but to put hands to work to make our dreams and plans come true, right? So that's why I'm here, wanting to make things happen, looking for a nice reciprocal couple to form a family based upon care, attention, commitment, support, respect and faithfulness..., even sometimes spoil our beloved ones with little details in order to keep romance alive because I learnt in my life that love is a matter of two, don't you think?

So, are you interested in continuing our correspondence? If so, would you please tell me how good is your English? I mean, do you think you'll be able to have a conversation without an interpreter? Please tell me a little about your life there, your hobbies, what you like to do in your free time..., I'd like to know what kind of man and relationship you are looking for, and last but not least, please would you share with me the codes of your other picture albums?

I don't want to bore you with my first letter, I hope we will start corresponding and see if we can build something together.

Have a good day,

Alvaro

ПИСЬМО МУЖЧИНЫ, НА КОТОРОЕ НУЖНО ОТВЕТИТЬ

Subject: some loving hugs for you...

Yanochka, my only...

It simply overwhelms me to once more see your gentle, non-presumptuous nature manifest itself in your letters to me.

Honey, the only thing I can say to you is how much closer I feel to you because of the consistent, never-ending way that you show the depth and range of what goes on behind those blue eyes. Can I help it if I find myself thinking about you more and more as the days go by? (kiss you!!)

Earlier this month, the very last payment toward my indebtedness was automatically withdrawn from my bank account leaving only a small, residual payment to be made the middle of next month and I shall be completely debt-free at that time. This entails a most necessary re-evaluation of where I stand in terms of my financial future - a future that will be tempered with the knowledge of what it means to voluntarily amass unnecessary debt. To that end, I do intend to stay where I am for a bit yet, but I also envision finally divesting myself of the mentality of other people in this house so that I can enjoy some privacy and, more importantly, some peace and quiet. Do not worry, though, you will most certainly be advised well in advance of any change of location that I will undertake in the near future. As well, it only makes financial sense to keep my current vehicle roadworthy as opposed to immediately immersing myself back in debt by purchasing a newer vehicle, not to mention it will be cheaper for vehicle insurance. The insurance companies in this province have been inundated with fairly large settlements paid out to individual policy holders (so they claim) which means higher insurance rates for everybody (like it's not common knowledge just how much money insurance companies actually do have)

Again, my only lady, if there is anything of the most personal nature you wish to know about me, feel free to ask at any time.

Amidst the recently-fallen snowflakes here in this city,

I give you my most genuine, loving hugs...

Bruce
